We are pleased to announce ICASP-6, the 6th International Conference on Advances in Solidification Processes.

The ICASP conference series is a preeminent forum for researchers to discuss the latest advances and future directions in solidification science. The 6th edition will be held 20–24 June 2022 at «Le Bischenberg», in Bischoffsheim, on the Alsace Wine

Route and at the foot of the Vosges in the east of France. The venue and the conference schedule will give plenty of opportunities for personal contacts and discussions.

ICASP-6 will cover all aspects of research and applications related to solidification. It will be a great opportunity for researchers and engineers from academia and industry to exchange on recent advances and to discuss outstanding challenges in the field of solidification. The topics covered by the conference include, but are not restricted to:

- Nucleation and grain refinement
- Interfaces
- Microstructure formation during solidification and remelting
- Dendritic growth and dendrite fragmentation
- Eutectic, peritectic, monotectic growth
- Rapid solidification
- Melting
- Stress and deformation, hot tearing, shrinkage, and porosity defects
- Multiphase flow and heat & mass transfer, mushy zone rheology, macrosegregation
- Thermophysical properties, th

Industrial partners will also be part of ICASP6 to display latest products and innovations.

Besides exciting scientific interactions, you will find in ICASP6 an networking evening, ideal meeting place to exchange with the participants and make possible demonstrations.

ICASP6, 20–24 June 2022 at «Le Bischenberg», Alsace, France.

Looking forward to seeing you there

WINE ROUTE

Discovering the wine route: taste buds and pupils

You wish to associate your image with a moment of friendly exchange between participants? We have the appropriate answer to your wish.

On Wednesday, June 22, the scientific sessions will end earlier in the afternoon to leave room for a moment of discovery: the wine route.

After this activity, participants will have the possibility to continue this discovery by taking the evening meal outside.

You have the possibility to sponsor these outdoor activities, contact us to define the modalities!
